

Arnhild Spence new Resident Representative in Geneva

Arnhild Spence has been appointed new Resident Representative in Geneva, to serve from 10 March. Spence has broad and varied experience from the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and a number of international organisations. She has previously worked for the International Red Cross, the European Union and NATO. She is joining NRC from her previous position as Humanitarian Officer in the United Nations' Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (OCHA) in Geneva.

“I know NRC from the humanitarian community in Geneva, and have a very good impression of the organisation. I look forward to this important job”, says Spence. She succeeds Paul Nesse in the role.
