The boundaries and names shown and the designations used on this map do not imply official endorsement or acceptance by IDMC.

Sources:
DTM, NEMA, OCHA, Governments of Cameroon and Niger

The causes of internal displacement in and around Nigeria, April 2015:
- Rural to urban IDP movements within states
- Displacement of IDPs & host communities
- Return trends
- Boko Haram attacks
- Inter-communal clashes

Key numbers of IDPs and returnees:
- 1,235,294 IDPs in Nigeria
  - Source: DTM/IOM and NEMA
- 672,714 IDPs in Niger
  - Source: DTM
- 50,000 IDPs in Chad
  - Source: Gov't of Chad
- 117,000 refugees from Nigeria
  - Source: Gov't of Cameroon
- 74,000 refugees from Nigeria
  - Source: Gov't of Cameroon
- 14,500 IDPs in Benin
  - Source: OCHA
- 27,000 refugees from Nigeria and returnees
  - Source: OCHA
- 20,845 IDPs in Nigeria
  - Source: NEMA
- 60,555 IDPs in Nigeria
  - Source: NEMA
- 135,810 IDPs in Nigeria
  - Source: DTM
- 220,159 IDPs in Africa
  - Source: DTM
- 74,125 IDPs in Nigeria
  - Source: DTM
- 60,555 IDPs in Nigeria
  - Source: NEMA
- 24,655 IDPs in Nigeria
  - Source: DTM
- 3,418 IDPs in Nigeria
  - Source: Gov't
- 929 IDPs in Nigeria
  - Source: NEMA
- 20,845 IDPs in Nigeria
  - Source: NEMA
- 74,125 IDPs in Nigeria
  - Source: DTM
- 117,000 IDPs in Nigeria
  - Source: OCHA
- 74,000 refugees from Nigeria
  - Source: Gov't of Cameroon

The Central region of Nigeria, also known as the Middle Belt, is highlighted on the map.